

JOIN THE FUN! 3rd Annual RHP Appreciation Cookout on April 18!

We are excited to celebrate all of our helpers and supporters at the 3rd Annual Reentry House Plus Appreciation Cookout on Saturday, April 18. As a valued part of the RHP community, we hope you will join us between 11 am and 2 pm in the backyard of 1315 Carolina Loop in Hillsborough. Board members will be operating the grills, cooking traditional mouth-watering burgers and hot dogs, with an array of toppings nearby. We will also provide cold drinks and chips. You are welcome to bring anything you might like to add, such as a side dish or dessert – but that is not required!

Our annual Appreciation Cookout has become a regular treat for our volunteers, neighbors, donors, County officials, residents, and local community. We would love for you to enjoy tasty food, tour the home, meet residents, and engage in meaningful conversations with people who care about the formerly incarcerated. A short program at 12:30 pm will introduce our new full-time Program Director, Bobby Harrington, interview one of our residents, and allow time for questions throughout. We will be showing off extensive renovations to our home, which now has a brightness and welcoming feel that matches our commitment to our residents.

Set aside this time to learn more about the justice-involved men whose lives we touch on a daily basis – as well as the men and women we reach in other ways. We’re looking forward to a caring community event in our large, well-shaded backyard. Thankfully, this year we were able to move the event earlier in the spring to avoid the hot and steamy days of June. (Note: If problem weather is likely, we will move the event one week to Saturday, April 25. Watch for an email if a last-minute change is made.)

This would be a perfect time to invite interested friends and family members to join our celebration. You are encouraged to RSVP for our planning purposes, but that is not in any way a requirement. We will always have extras.
